San Diego to Los Angeles Tours

Approximately 1 day - $590 (non-inclusive)/$710 (gratuity inclusive)

Most people visit Los Angeles in search of something. Maybe it's a day at the beach, a glimpse of a celebrity, or an afternoon with Mickey Mouse. The sprawling metropolis delivers it all, and then some. Visitors looking for a place to unroll their beach towels have 81 miles of coastline to choose from. Find quirky subculture in Venice Beach, surfers galore in Manhattan Beach, or family fun at the beach in Santa Monica. Below you will find a few Los Angeles hotspots to include in your Los Angeles tour!

Mann's Chinese Theater on Hollywood Blvd.

Mann's Chinese Theatre: Take in a movie or a few snapshots at this unique historic theatre, built with a Chinese theme that makes it one of the top Los Angeles tourist attractions. In the concrete sidewalk outside the theatre, view the hand and footprints of stars past and present.

Hollywood Walk of Fame: Along the sidewalks of Hollywood Boulevard, check out stars in the concrete dedicated to film and music legends and today's biggest stars.

Chinatown: Feast on the most authentic Chinese food in town and immerse yourself in Chinese culture at this less-visited Los Angeles attraction.

Dim sum restaurants are a good choice for a Sunday brunch.

Rodeo Drive: The famed street is known world-wide as an epicenter of luxury fashion. The stores of the famous Rodeo Drive span three blocks where visitors can enjoy more than 100 world renowned high end boutiques and hotels.

The famous Rodeo
Drive!

Venice Boardwalk: Venice Beach, California is a desired destination for travelers from all over the world. It is unlike any place on Earth, well known for its artists, street performers and funky atmosphere. It is a virtual carnival running year round with free admission. Experience a tour through the many bizarre and interesting scenes that make Venice truly unique.

Santa Monica Pier: Located in the heart of Santa Monica, the pier offers fun for kids and adults alike. Rides, arcade games, outdoor concerts, restaurants and a great view of the beach make this stop full of great Los Angeles attractions.

Theme Parks

Disneyland/Disney's California Adventure*: Disney's theme park on the west coast not only includes the typical rides and attractions, but also the California Adventure, which offers a perspective on the state's natural and cultural wonders. You'll also find a wide variety of restaurants to please adult and kid tastes at this popular Los Angeles attraction.

Universal Studios and Citywalk*: Take a tour of behind-the-scenes movie making, watch amazing stunt spectaculars, and then stop to get lunch, do some shopping or take in the latest blockbuster at Universal's Citywalk. L.A.'s only Hard Rock Cafe is also located at this Los Angeles attraction.

Knott's Berry Farm*: with over 165 rides, shows and attractions, Knott's Berry Farm is the place to go for family fun! With five themed areas, there is something at Knott's for everyone. Experience world-class thrills on Silver Bullets, the park's first-ever suspended coaster, or Sierra Sidewinders - the spinning coaster that offers a panoramic view. Experience Knott's newest coaster Pony Express - The Rides, delivering a horseback relay at speeds never imagined in the Old West. For something different, detour to the Park's Old West Ghost Town® and have a cool sarsaparilla or visit Camp Snoopy, home of the PEANUTS gang and filled with dozens of kid-sized adventures.

Disneyland Magic Kingdom!

Six Flags Magic Mountain*: this world-famous attraction is one of Southern California's most popular theme parks. With the most exciting thrill rides around, California residents come here when they want to have fun. Over the years it has evolved. A new park has been added next door - Six Flags Hurricane Harbor - and the two parks together comprise Six Flags California. Magic Mountain bills itself as the "Xtreme Park," with the most roller coasters and adult rides in the region. Of course, there are activities for the less ambitious, but this park is known best for its thrills.
